From:	Edward Temko <temkon@me.com>
To:	Ehud Barak <ehbarak1@gmail.com>
CC:
Date:	Tue, 3/24/2015 11:52:36 PM
Subject:	Re: from ned

Thanks, Ehud. Now completely clear. Hope to have more for you to read this coming weekend.
Best wishes
Ned

> On 24 Mar 2015, at 19:20, Ehud Barak <ehbarak1@gmail.com> wrote:
>
> Hi Ned
> Thx. I really think it was a very good meeting.
> Looking forward.
> The Commander of Officers School was Col. Itzhak Hofi aka Hakka (Chakka). חקה.
> He was before than during the 1956 campaign,and in the Mitla pass battle the deputy commander of the parachutists Brigade (202) which was led by Arik Sharon. He lectured to us in details about this battle during the officers course in 1962.
> Haka became later the Commander of the Northern Command after Motta. I've mentioned him in re to the Argaz 3 operation to abduct the Syrian officers(the third General) in the incident I had with Dado. And as the more alert general in the North before 73 war started. Bar lev was sent to his command post to help stabilize the situation before he came to the South.
> Later on Haka turned into Head of Mossad during Entebbe and participated in the Thursday evening meeting with Rabin.
> Katcha (Shimon Kahaner) was a 101 fighter and later officer in the parachutists who grew up with Har Zion in a moshav named Rishpon near Herzlia. I mentioned his remarks in HarZions funeral re how youth adventures shaped them both as future soldiers.
>
> Sent from my iPhone
>
> On Mar 24, 2015, at 20:29, Edward Temko <temkon@me.com> wrote:
>
> > Hi Ehud:
> > I heard from Tim that he had a very good meeting with you. I'm attaching a draft of the next chapter for you and Nili to read… I'm meanwhile moving ahead with Chapter Three (officers' school, the first real Sayeret Matkal operations… up through the 1967 war) and hope to have at least a good part of it done by the end of the week.
> > One question: you mention two different names for the commander of the officers' course: Kacha (who I assume is Shimon Cahaner) and a guy named Harka, who you refer to as Arik's formal deputy, and a guy who spoke to all the cadets about the Mitla Pass battle. Can you clarify? Were there two commanders at the officers' school?
> > Thanks, and enjoy New York!
> > Best wishes
> > Ned

<Chapter Two 24mar15C.pdf>